Advice to Education Agents
GTE Assessment guide
Evidence of Funds and Income (For AL3 Countries)

One or more of the following evidence is accepted as evidence of available funds, in support of GTE requirement, provided there is certified or notarised documentation.

1. Money deposited in an eligible financial institution in candidate's name or the name of an eligible family member. Money deposited must be held for at least 3 months immediately prior to the lodgement of student visa application.

2. Loan from a financial institution or government of home country in candidate's name or an eligible family member's name.

3. Scholarship from student's Australian Education Provider.

4. Scholarship or financial support from:
   • The government of home country
   • The government of a foreign country
   • Employer
   • Multilateral agency
   • Gazetted organisation (Rotary International, Ford Foundation, National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies)
   • Australian Government
   • Australian State or Territory Government
   • Acceptable non-profit organisation.

One or more of the following is accepted as evidence of income, provided there is certified or notarised documentation

• Tax statement
• Income statement
• Business statement
• Loan documents
• Bank Account Statement(s)
• Savings history or other evidence of regular income